Audio Interview: Capitalizing on Immune Responses to Covid-19

Eric J. Rubin, M.D., Ph.D., Lindsey R. Baden, M.D., and Stephen Morrissey, Ph.D.

The rapid spread of SARS-CoV-2, a novel coronavirus that emerged in late 2019, and the resulting Covid-19 disease has been labeled a Public Health Emergency of International Concern by the World Health Organization. What physicians need to know about transmission, diagnosis, and treatment is the subject of ongoing updates from infectious disease experts at the Journal.

In this audio interview conducted on May 20, 2020, the editors discuss recent advances involving convalescent plasma, monoclonal antibodies, and vaccine candidates.
